

TEXAS NATIONS TITLE AGENCY, INC.
ESCROW CLAIM FILING INSTRUCTIONS

READ CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THE PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

This Proof of Claim Form must be used if you have a claim against Texas Nations Title Agency, Inc. (“Texas Nations”). By accurately completing this form you can protect your interests, help us identify your claim, and allow us the opportunity to consider your claim properly. It is very important that you complete all the sections applicable to you and sign and return the form by the claims filing deadline, together with all documents supporting your claim.

Please follow these instructions in completing the Proof of Claim:

1. Indicate the basis of your claim (i.e., why you think you are owed money) and, if known, indicate the amount you think you are owed.
2. If the amount of your claim is unknown, you must still file the Proof of Claim by the filing deadline. Insert the word “unstated” in the amount column.
3. You must include sufficient documentation to support your claim. Suggested documentation includes: the signed HUD-1 Settlement Statement, an executed Earnest Money Contract, a Release of Earnest Money signed by all parties with current contact information, copies of cancelled checks (front and back), bank statements, contracts, and correspondence from Texas Nations.
4. If you have assigned any portion of your claim, you must indicate the assignee’s name and address and attach a copy of the assignment.
5. During the course of the receivership proceedings, you must notify the Special Deputy Receiver in writing of any change in your mailing address and/or telephone number.
6. You must provide your telephone number(s), and sign and date the Proof of Claim in front of a Notary Public. Claims filed by corporations must be signed by an authorized representative, stating the capacity of the signatory. If an attorney is signing this form on behalf of a client, a power of attorney must be attached. The Special Deputy Receiver may waive the notarization requirement regarding Proofs of Claim if good cause, as determined in the sole discretion of the Special Deputy Receiver, exists for such a waiver.
7. If you fail to adequately describe or document your claim, your claim may be rejected.
8. Review the completed form, sign and date it, attach all required documentation and send it to us at the address indicated on the form. Failure to complete the Proof of Claim properly according to these instructions may cause your claim to be delayed or rejected.
9. You will receive notice at the address you provided on the Proof of Claim when your claim is processed.
